
Comment -> tippani garnu

Comment commented commented commenting comments.

How to Use "Comment" with Example Sentences

comment (n): something that is written or told that gives your opinion or an explanation

Used with adjectives:

"He made a brief comment."

(brief, fair)

"She gave positive comments about the dinner."

(positive, nice, favorable)

"Jane responded poorly to the negative comment."

(negative, unfavorable)

"A teacher can help students by providing a lot of helpful comments."

(helpful, useful, constructive, valuable, detailed, written)

"That was a very interesting comment."

(interesting, insightful, perceptive)

"Please provide general comments in the box."

(general)

Used with verbs:

"She makes weird comments during class."

(makes, has, says)

"Submit your comments in the box below."

(submit, send, write, add, leave, post)

"We welcome all comments and suggestions."

(welcome, appreciate)

"Our office received your comments this morning."

(received, got)

"I was not feeling well last night, so please ignore my comments."

(ignore, disregard, forget)

Used with prepositions:

"The president was asked to comment on the healthcare issue."

(on, about)

"We want to hear comments from the audience."

(from)

"He left the party without comment."

(without) -> bahek

Used with adverbs:

"Bill did not comment publicly on the situation."

(publicly, favorably)

"She quietly commented that the food was too salty."

(quietly, softly)

Used with prepositions:

"Everyone was commenting about that performance."

(about, on)