

#Argue -> Tarka garnu.

Argue argued argued

How to Use "Argue" with Example Sentences

Used with adverbs:

"I constantly argue with my neighbor about noise."

(constantly, continuously, continually)

"My daughter argues back when I tell her to do something."

(back)

"The politician argued passionately during the debate."

(passionately, strongly, powerfully, convincingly, effectively, persuasively)

Used with prepositions:

"They argued about who would go first."

(about, over)

"They often argue with each other."

(with)

"She argued against the new law."

(against, for)

Used with verbs:

"I don't wish to argue."

(wish, want, like)

"He tries to argue about everything."

(tries, likes, wants, has)

#Ask -> sodhnu.

Ask asked asked.

How to Use "Ask" with Example Sentences

ask (v): to say or write in a form of a question to get information

Used with adverbs:

"If you want help, please ask nicely."

(nicely, politely)

"I calmly asked if he knew anything about the accident."

(calmly, cautiously, carefully, casually)

"They nervously asked about the accident."

(nervously, anxiously)

"My son eagerly asked about his birthday present."

(eagerly, curiously)

egerly-> utsukatapurbak

Present-> upahar.

"My wife suspiciously asked where I was last night."

(suspiciously)-> sankalu rupale, sandehapurna.

"I specifically asked for a window seat."

(specifically, particularly)

Used with verbs:

"I want to ask you a serious question."

(want, need, would like, have)

"I dare you to ask her out on a date."

(dare)-> sahas hunu, himmati huhnu .

"You forgot to ask the important question."

(forgot to, didn't)

Used with prepositions:

"I asked about his childhood."

(about) – barema.

Childhooh-> balyakal, balya awasatha

"Do not ask him for money."

(for)-> ka lagi.

7-26-2018

Attack = aakraman garnu.

Attack attacked attacked attacking attacks

How to Use "Attack" with Example Sentences

[attack \(n\): an act of trying to hurt someone or something;
a sudden illness](#)

Used with adjectives:

"We were shocked by the brutal attack."

(brutal, horrific, violent, verbal, deadly)

"The sneak attack caught everyone off guard."

(sneak, unprovoked, surprise, direct)

"We won't tolerate sexual attacks."

(sexual, racist, homophobic, personal)

"He was the victim of a random attack."

(random, isolated, recent)

"The army is afraid of suicide attacks."

(suicide, direct, enemy, terrorist, air, missile, nuclear)

"She had a sudden asthma attack."

(asthma, heart, panic)

Used with verbs:

"The boys carried out attacks on strangers."

(carried out, planned)

"I blocked the attacks with my ninja skills."

(blocked, dodged, evaded)

"Where did the attack occur?"

(occur, take place, happen)

"He is experiencing a heart attack."

(be + experiencing, be + having, be + suffering from)

"Stress can cause panic attacks."

(cause, bring about, bring on, trigger)

"We hope to resist their attack."

(resist, stop, prevent)

Used with prepositions:

"The city was scared of the recent attacks against women."

(against, on)

"The number of violent attacks by young children are increasing."

(by)

"The country is under attack by rebel forces."

(under) attack (v): to try to hurt someone or something; to tell someone what he or she has done wrong

Used with adverbs:

"The bear brutally attacked the hikers."

(brutally, viciously, savagely)

"He was physically attacked outside of his house."

(physically, verbally, directly)

"They were repeatedly attacked by bees."

(repeatedly)

"He was strongly attacked by the media after the scandal came out."

(strongly, verbally, publicly, openly)

Used with prepositions:

"She was attacked by a stranger."

(by)

"He was attacked with a knife."

(with)

"She was attacked for being different than the others."

(for)

